P R E S I D E N T DR. JUDY L. BONNER

Dr. Judith L. Bonner was named the 28th president of The University of Alabama on Nov. 1, 2012. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bonner served as interim president from March 5 until Aug. 31, 2012. She was promoted to executive vice president and provost on April 1, 2006, after serving as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs since March 2003. During the decade she served as provost, the University underwent transformational change growing from 19,000 students in 2003 to more than 33,600 in 2012. Each year, the academic strength of the student body and the faculty exceeded the record set the previous year. Alabama's athletics programs likewise have excelled in recent years with four teams winning national championships in 2011-12.

Dr. Bonner joined the faculty at The University of Alabama in 1981 as associate professor and head of the department of human nutrition and hospitality. She served as assistant academic vice president from 1985-1990 and as special assistant to the president from 1989-91. Promoted to professor in 1988, she was named dean of the College of Human Environmental Sciences in 1989 and held that position until 2003. Prior to coming to UA, she held faculty appointments in the department of pediatrics at UAB and the department of medical dietetics at The Ohio State University.

Dr. Bonner earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Alabama and her Ph.D. from Ohio State, all in nutrition. Her research, focused on nutritional needs of chronically ill children and on eating disorders, has resulted in numerous publications.

Dr. Bonner is an active member of civic, scientific and professional organizations. Among other awards and honors, her accolades include the Distinguished Alumni Award from Ohio State, the AHEA Leader Award and the award for Outstanding Dietitian for the state of Alabama.

BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle was named Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama on March 22, 2013, succeeding Mal Moore who had held the position since November, 1999. Battle joined the Crimson Tide after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that consistently was hallmarked by innovation and foresight.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, he came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle holds a bachelor's degree from The University of Alabama and a master's degree from The University of Oklahoma. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. Battle was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All-Decade Team of the 1960s.

Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at the University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he was an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, Battle moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as the Tennessee head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. The 1971 team finished ninth in both national polls while his 1972 Tennessee squad had a final ranking of eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the coaches poll.

Battle began a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and he served as president and chief executive officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties.

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member in the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He received the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award from the University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In 2010, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) Hall of Fame and later was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. Battle currently serves on the boards of the Bank of North Georgia, the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife Mary is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas School of Nursing, with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. She earned a Master of Science in healthcare administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham. Mary currently serves on the board of WellStar Health Systems of Atlanta, Ga., where she also serves on the WellStar's Foundation Board, in addition to serving as chairperson of WellStar's Major Gifts Committee. A member of the Arthritis Foundation of Birmingham, she is active in fundraising for research of rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles have been active in fundraising for UAB's Department of Rheumatology and the school's Stem Cell Institute. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

ON CAMPUS

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 350 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and University's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, the University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

The Ferguson Center was completed in 1973. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built slightly to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the first floor is the perfect place to unwind; test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape from the daily pressures of college life.

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities for students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and plenty of deck space.

FOSTER AUDITORIUM

2013 OUTLOOK

HOME OF THE ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

The University of Alabama Athletics Department recently renovated and expanded Foster Auditorium to create a new home for the Crimson Tide's volleyball and women's basketball programs. The teams began competing again in Foster Auditorium in 2011.

The restoration of the venerable three-story building was completed in January of 2011 in time for a women's basketball game between Alabama and Florida on Feb. 13, when the Tide defeated the Gators 64-59. In their first return match to Foster Auditorium, the Alabama women's volleyball team posted a 3-0 (25-12, 25-15, 25-15) victory over Alabama State in the Hampton Inn Bama Bash on Aug. 26, 2011.

The remodel of the facility included refurbishing the arena portion of the building with new seating both on the floor level and on the second level overlooking the court, creating an impressive competitive atmosphere for both sports.

"From the outside, Foster is a magnificent building," head women's volleyball coach Ed Allen said. "Once you get to the inside, you see the quality at which the building was renovated, with the ability to create an intimate environment. Everything was done first class."

The renovation also included suites for both programs to house locker rooms, team areas, meeting and video rooms, and coaches offices. A weight room and athletics training facilities were also included in the project.

"Foster Auditorium is one of the best volleyball facilities in the country," Allen said. "It provides a huge impact on our ability to attract the kind of athletes we expect to get at Alabama. For them to see the atmosphere they're going to play in and how they are going to be taken care of makes the facility vital to our success. The fact that we don't have to leave the arena to lift weights, practice or play will be enticing to future players at Alabama."

Originally built in 1939, Foster Auditorium was named in 1942 for Richard Clarke Foster, president of the University of Alabama from 1937-41. It was the largest and most expensive of 14 buildings added to campus between 1936 and 1939, using funds from the Public Works Administration.

In its original capacity, Foster served as home for intramural sports, graduations, concerts, lectures and campus meetings. It also served as the home of several varsity athletic programs over the years, including the men's basketball team from 1939-68, women's basketball, which played a few games in Foster in their inaugural season in 1975, and gymnastics from 1975-84.

In the early years of the Alabama's volleyball program, the team practiced and competed in Foster. The women's volleyball program, which began in 1974, played their first 15 seasons (1974-81 and 1989-95) in Foster Auditorium. The program was discontinued from 1982-88. The volleyball program made the move away from Foster before the 1996 season, playing in the main arena of Coleman Coliseum from 1996-99. Beginning with the 2000 campaign, volleyball competed in the Coleman Auxiliary Volleyball Extension (CAVE) for 11 seasons, before returning to Foster Auditorium in 2011.

The University of Alabama women's athletic program, including coaches and administrative offices, was located in Foster during the 1970s through the early 1980s.

"With the way Foster is designed, it's going to create a lot of energy for the team and an atmosphere that fans will want to come back to," Allen said. "Playing in an intimate environment is going to be a huge home-court advantage for us and it provides an opportunity to springboard the program. Additionally, it has all the bells and whistles that should help attract top-notch recruits. It was a huge selling point in my decision to come to Alabama."

HEAD COACH ED ALLEN

ED
ALLEN

Head Coach

Third Year

BALL STATE, 1988

Ed Allen returns for his third season as the head women's volleyball coach at the University of Alabama in 2013. Allen was named the head women's volleyball coach at the Capstone on Jan. 10, 2011, after being named the 2010 Conference USA Coach of the Year and the 2010 AVCA Midwest Regional Coach of the Year at the University of Tulsa.

Allen, the fourth head coach in the history of the Alabama volleyball program, led the Crimson Tide to a 29-34 overall record in his first two seasons at the Capstone, following an 18-14 mark in 2012. The winning season was the first for Alabama since 2008, while the 18 wins were the most for a Tide team since the 2005 team posted 23 victories. Alabama had a 7-13 record in Southeastern Conference play in 2012, posting the most conference wins since 2008, when the Tide won nine SEC matches.

A winner at every level of coaching, Allen enters his 22nd overall season as a head coach with a career record of 523-217 (.707). Entering the 2013 season, Allen is tied for 27th among active coaches with 523 wins, while his .707 winning percentage ranks 23rd among active Division I coaches. After leading the Tide to a 18-14 record in 2012, Allen recorded his 20th winning season in 21 years as a head coach.

In the 2012 season, senior outside hitter Kayla Fitter garnered second team All-SEC honors, while freshman setter Sierra Wilson and freshman outside hitter Laura Steiner earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors during the year. Fellow freshman Kryssi Daniels led the SEC with 51 aces and finished 17th in the country with 0.43 aces per set.

Allen is a six-time conference coach of the year award winner, while guiding his teams to five regular-season titles, four conference tournament titles, and the NCAA postseason four times. He has coached 61 all-conference performers and eight conference player of the year selections.

In his final season at Tulsa (2010), Allen guided the Golden Hurricane to a school-record 31 wins, including a 20-0 record in Conference USA action. The 20 conference wins also set a school mark, and he guided Tulsa to the program's first NCAA Tournament victory, a 3-0 upset win over 13th-seeded LSU.

In 2010, Tulsa captured the C-USA regular-season title for the second time in school history, the first coming in 2006 (Allen's first year with the program). He led Tulsa to a 31-3 campaign and a second-round finish in the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

In five seasons at Tulsa, Allen led his team to at least 20 wins each year and compiled an overall record of 133-37 (.782), with a 65-19 (.774) conference mark. He became the fastest Golden Hurricane coach to reach 100 wins since the program began in 1976, accumulating more wins in the first five seasons than any other coach in the history of the program. Tulsa volleyball players combined for 24 all-conference selections during Allen's tenure, including nine first-team selections, two player of the year honorees, three setter of the year honorees, and one freshman of the year. Tyler Henderson was named the 2010 C-USA Player of the Year and garnered her second straight AVCA All-America selection. Henderson was the second All-American for Tulsa to be coached by Allen. The other was setter Julia Silva, a former assistant coach at Alabama, who was a three-time AVCA honorable mention All-American and a two-time C-USA Setter of the Year.

In his last 11 seasons as a head coach, Allen has guided his teams to eight regular-season or tournament championships. His first squad (2006) at Tulsa won the C-USA regular-season title, while his second (2007) won the C-USA postseason tournament crown, earning the program's first NCAA Tournament berth. He was named the Conference USA Coach of the Year twice, first in 2006 and again in 2010.

Prior to Tulsa, Allen spent three seasons (2003-05) as the head volleyball coach at Presbyterian College in Clinton, S.C. During his tenure, Allen's teams compiled an overall 94-18 record, a 39-3 conference mark, won three South Atlantic Conference Championships, two conference tournament titles and qualified for the NCAA Division II National Tournament twice. At Presbyterian, Allen coached two All-Americans, three conference players of the year, two conference tournament MVPs, one freshman of the year, 12 all-conference players and five all-region selections.

Allen served on the NCAA Division II Head Coaches Committee, NCAA Division II South Region Poll Committee and NCAA Division II South Region Player Committee while at Presbyterian.

Allen spent 11 years as head coach of the Anderson University volleyball program in Anderson, Ind. During that tenure, he built the program into one of the nation's premier NCAA Division III squads. His teams compiled a program-record 11 straight winning seasons, including nine 20-win seasons, won 17 tournament titles, and posted a 267-128 (.676) record. He coached 34 all-conference, 23 all-tournament, and two conference players of the year during his tenure with the Ravens.

Allen also served as assistant director of athletics at Anderson University for seven years and was responsible for facility management. In five of his final six years at Anderson, Allen's teams earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honorees and in each of his 11 years as head coach at Anderson the team compiled at least a cumulative 3.0 GPA. He also coached two academic All-Americans and four academic all-region selections at Anderson.

Prior to moving to the collegiate level, Allen was an assistant volleyball coach at Pendleton Heights (Ind.) High School for three years (1989-91) and also had a two-year mark of 33-6 as the junior varsity coach.

Allen earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1988 and his master's degree in athletic administration in 1996, both from Ball State University. He is also a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).

Allen, 49, and his wife Karis have three sons: Drake, Payton and Nolan.

Assistant Coach Third Year

TULSA, 2008

Ryan Wills returns for his third season as an assistant coach for the Alabama women's volleyball program in 2013. His primary responsibilities include working with the Crimson Tide middle blockers, installing the passing system, helping with the coordination of the defensive scheme and serving as the camp coordinator.

Before coming to Alabama, Wills was an assistant coach at the University of Tulsa for one season. In 2010, he helped the Golden Hurricane post a school record with 31 wins, including winning the program's first NCAA Tournament match. Tulsa finished the 2010 season with a 31-3 record and was 20-0 in Conference USA, earning the school's second regular-season conference title. Tulsa ended the season ranked No. 20 in the country in the AVCA Coaches' Poll.

Prior to his time at Tulsa, Wills spent two years in California, where he served as Beach Program Director at Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club and coached two teams for the club. He also was a volunteer coach for the UCLA women's volleyball team for two seasons.

As a volunteer coach at UCLA from 2008-10, Wills assisted the Bruins program under now-retired head coach Andy Banachowski, the all-time winningest NCAA Division I women's volleyball coach. During Wills' time with the program, UCLA reached the NCAA regional semifinals in 2008 and the NCAA second round in 2009. He helped train three AVCA All-Americans, two Pac-10 Conference Freshmen of the Year and one AVCA National Freshman of the Year.

As the BEACH Team Director and Developer at Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club, Wills organized a sand volleyball program for the club, and in 2009 the program won the inaugural national club championship for club beach volleyball.

As a coach for the Mizuno Long Beach programs, Wills helped one team win a silver medal in the 16 Open Division, a national championship in the 17 Open division at the Junior Olympics and the Southern California Volleyball Association championship in 2008. While at the Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club, Wills coached his teams to three Junior Olympic medalist finishes in three years, trained nine girls who received Division I scholarships and had five players earn Junior Olympic All-America honors, including Kellie Culbertson, the Junior Olympic 17 open division Most Valuable Player.

As a student assistant at Tulsa from 2006-08, Wills helped the Golden Hurricane win its first Conference USA regular-season title in 2006, followed by the program's first C-USA tournament championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007. Tulsa compiled a 54-15 record during those two seasons.

Wills assisted with Club ONE Volleyball in Tulsa from 2006-08, during which time the program won three Oklahoma Regional Volleyball Association Championships and received three bids to the Junior Olympic National Championship. He also served as a personal beach volleyball coach in Hermosa Beach, Calif., from 2006-10.

Wills graduated from Tulsa in 2008 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He and his wife Evyn currently live in Tuscaloosa.

University of Alabama head women's volleyball coach Ed Allen announced the hiring of Bryn Kehoe as an assistant coach for the Crimson Tide on Feb. 15, 2013. Kehoe, one of the top players in Stanford volleyball history, will work with the setters and coordinate the Tide's offensive system.

Kehoe gained coaching experience as a lead coach for Gold Medal Squared from 2010-13, was a lead coach for the All-American Volleyball camps from 2008-13, and was the head coach of the T-Street Volleyball Club in Irvine, Calif., for one season (2009-10).

Kehoe comes to Tuscaloosa after spending the past four seasons (2008-12) playing overseas for Sagres NUC in Neuchatel, Switzerland, where she helped her team place second in the Swiss Championship in 2010 and 2011. Following an outstanding collegiate career at Stanford University, Kehoe's professional playing career began in 2008, when she joined the Biel-Bienne VBC team in Biel-Bienne, Switzerland from August of 2008 through April of 2009.

In addition to her experience playing overseas, Kehoe also spent time in the USA Volleyball program. Most recently, she started one of three matches and played four sets on Team USA's tour of China in 2010. In 2005, Kehoe was a member of the U.S. Women's National Team that competed in the Montreux Masters. She was the starting setter for the 2005 U.S. Women's Junior National Team that competed at the FIVB World Championship in Turkey, was a member of the 2004 U.S. Women's Junior National Team that won the gold medal at the NORCECA Continental Championship, and was a member of the 2003 U.S. Girls Youth National Team that competed at the FIVB World Championship in Poland.

In four seasons as the starting setter at Stanford, Kehoe helped guide the Cardinal to the NCAA championship game three times, including a national championship in 2004 when she was a freshman. With Kehoe as the starting setter in 2006 and 2007, Stanford finished runner-up in the NCAA tournament each year. Kehoe garnered a number of accolades in her playing days on "The Farm," as she was a three-time American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-American, from 2005-07. She was also named an All-American by Volleyball Magazine in 2006 and 2007, was a first team All-PAC-10 selection in 2004, 2006 and 2007, and was named the 2007 National Setter of the Year by CVU.com.

Kehoe left the Stanford program as the school's all-time leader in career assists (5,956), while ranking in the top-10 in services aces (129) and digs (1,220). As a senior, she set the school single-season record with 1,742 assists in 2007, breaking her previous school record when she had 1,637 assists as a freshman in 2004. Her school record of 14.40 assists per set in 2007 led the country.

A native of North Bend, Ohio, Kehoe comes from a volleyball family. Her parents Steve and Amy played collegiately at Ball State and Western Michigan, respectively, and her brother Seth played volleyball at the University of Cincinnati and her brother Steven played volleyball at Ohio State, where he won a national championship in 2011. Kehoe graduated from Stanford in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in communications.

THE SEC

SETTING THE STANDARD FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS IN VOLLEYBALL.

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 80-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2012-13 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC, as conference teams captured seven national titles and six national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in football, gymnastics, men's indoor track & field and men's outdoor track and field. Since 1990, the SEC has won 156 team national championships for an average of more than six per year.

Alabama won the SEC's first national title of 2012-13 with its victory in the BCS National Championship Game in football. It is the SEC's seventh consecutive football national title. Florida won the league's third consecutive gymnastics title and 16th overall.

The Auburn equestrian team brought home the national title in the sport's first year in the SEC. Alabama won its first ever national championship in the sport of men's golf. Arkansas claimed its 12th national title in men's indoor track and field. Florida and Texas A&M shared the national title in men's outdoor track and field, after both squads recorded 53 points at the national meet.

Georgia's women's swimming and diving program brought home its fifth national title. Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 11 of its 21 sponsored sports during 2012-13 and in the top five in 13 of the 21 sports. Nine SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls, with Alabama winning BCS Championship. Three men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament and seven women's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament. Nine SEC baseball teams earned berths in the 2013 NCAA tournament, with LSU and Mississippi State advancing to the College World Series. With 171 teams advancing to 2012-13 NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the seven team championships, 93 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 559 individuals were awarded with first team All-America honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom, as well with more than 3,100 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, 12 SEC schools placed in the top 50 of the NACDA Directors Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a second-place finish. Texas A&M placed fifth while Georgia was 10th, LSU 19th, Arkansas 21st, Kentucky 25th, Alabama 26th, Auburn 33rd, Tennessee 37th, Vanderbilt 46th and Mississippi State 49th to round out the league's top-50 finishes.

ALABAMA ALL-AMERICANS

NINA FOSTER
VOLLEYBALL MAGAZINE
HONORABLE MENTION 1995

Nina Foster will be remembered as one of the greatest volleyball players in the program's history after back-to-back stellar performances during the 1994-1995 seasons. As a middle blocker, Foster became the first Crimson Tide player to earn honorable mention All-America status and AVCA All-District honors. The three-time SEC player of the week led the nation in blocks per game in 1994 (1.90) and was second in the nation in kills per game (6.02). During her tenure at the Capstone, Foster led the conference in blocks per game and kills per game. Foster also can be found in numerous categories in the Alabama record books. She ranks second all-time for solo blocks with 115, eighth in block assists with 240 and eighth in kills with 1,289. Foster holds the Tide record for highest career hitting percentage, at .3402.

ERIN HEFFNER
AVCA
HONORABLE MENTION 2003 and 2004

Hailing from Ft. Wayne, Ind., Erin Heffner became the second player in Alabama volleyball history named honorable mention All-America and was the first Crimson Tide volleyballer to be so honored by the AVCA. Heffner also was the first UA player to earn the honor twice. During her tenure at the Capstone, Heffner led the SEC in kills per game in 2003 and 2004. She also finished ninth in the nation in 2004 with 5.55 kills per game. The five-time SEC player of the week and two-time AVCA All-District selection also garnered AVCA South District Freshman of the Year accolades in 2001. One of the most successful players to wear the crimson and white, Heffner can be found on every career record list except assists and is the all-time kills leader with 2,090.

CRYSTAL HUDSON
HONORABLE MENTION 2006 and 2007

Crystal Hudson, a native from Hueytown, is one of the greatest middle blockers in Tide history. Hudson led her team to the first, second and third NCAA tournament berths in program history. In 2006, she led the team with 452 kills and 125 blocks. Hudson also posted an .824 hitting percentage against Kentucky, placing her fifth in the individual match records for hitting percentage. Hudson also held the Alabama record in that category after pulling in a .917 hitting percentage against Oklahoma in 2005. The AVCA South Region team selection became the second player in Alabama history to earn AVCA honorable mention All-America honors. Hudson also was selected to the All-SEC first team as a junior and senior.

BROOKS WEBSTER
HONORABLE MENTION 2008

Following her stellar junior campaign in 2008, Baltimore native Brooks Webster was honored with AVCA honorable mention All-America recognition, becoming the third player in Alabama history to achieve this status. In addition to her national award, Webster was recognized on the All-SEC first team. She led the Crimson Tide with 424 kills in 2008, after collecting 12 double-doubles and rattling off 20-plus kills on five occasions. Webster led the conference in kills with an average of 4.17 per set against SEC opponents and notched a career-best 26 kills in Alabama's win at Georgia. On the defensive end, Webster scooped up 287 digs good for second on the team. At the net, she racked up 45 blocks with 17 of those solo. Webster entered the Tide career record books during her junior season in three categories and currently is seventh in total attacks, eighth in solo blocks and 10th in kills.

JUDY GREEN

237-234 (.503)/116-141 (.451) SEC

Judy Green guided the Crimson Tide to 10 straight winning campaigns from 1999-2008. In 2007, she led Alabama to its third consecutive NCAA tournament appearance and third in school history. In 2000, the Tide captured its first SEC Western Division title and a school record for SEC victories. She later led Alabama to a share of the SEC Western Division crown in 2004.

DOROTHY FRANCO-REED

114-131 (.465)/27-63 (.300) SEC

In addition to being a standout player for the Crimson Tide in the late 1970s, Dorothy Franco Reed was entrusted with rebuilding the volleyball program at Alabama after its reinstatement in 1989. During her tenure, she guided the Tide to the program's first two 20-plus win seasons in the modern era.

STEPHANIE SCHLEUDER

285-108 (.725)/3-3 (.500) SEC

Stephanie Schleuder served as the head coach for both the volleyball and women's basketball teams at Alabama from 1975-77. She compiled a 39-36 mark as the basketball mentor. Schleuder was the first official head coach for both programs. Following her stint at Alabama, Schleuder coached at Minnesota for 13 seasons and was the head coach at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn., for 12 years before retiring after the 2009 season.
